Statement from Mornsun

Recently, we' ve learned that Mornsun Guangzhou Science & Technology Co., Ltd. has been listed by the SDN List maintained by the U.S. Department of Treasury Office of Foreign Assets Control. Our company takes this matter very seriously and is actively responding under the guidance of professional teams.

We are still conducting internal investigations. However, during this period, we must suspend all export transactions, including accepting new orders and delivering existing goods.

Our company will continue to monitor the subsequent developments and communicate with all relevant parties to ensure all necessary actions are taken.
